Assassins creed 2 sound data (AC2S) was an unofficial data pack and database released by the Assassin's Creed 2 Creation Kit (AC2K), available as a download on the third anniversary of the game's release. It is a complete database of all sound effects and background music from Assassin's Creed 2, including cut-scene music and subtle sound effects not available in the official release. The database was intended to simulate the experience of playing the game with none of the sound effects removed, and allowed players to add their own assets or alter them. The project was started by AldenKG, who published it on his website aldenkungen.com, and released it as freeware. The database is divided into 24 parts, named after characters from the game. It consists of 3,349 songs, sound effects, and background music. Although it is technically free, due to the complexity of the release, its creator asked for donations to cover the cost of hosting and maintenance. As of May 2018, the site has not been updated since 2013. Une petite enceinte de chinois, une table avec un assortiment de cartes à jouer et de bouteilles d'eau glacée, et le tout sur le sol, à l'ombre. Au-dessus, une lampe, un ordinateur, une pile de vieux livres. On s'est assis et ont pris quelques bouchées chacun. « Ici, à Lorient, c'est plutôt la population californienne qui vit. Ça ressemble à San Francisco. Il y a beaucoup d'étudiants et de travailleurs. » Elles sont donc restées trois jours, jusqu'à la fermeture de la boutique, mais elles vont se rendre à nouveau ici pour prendre du café avant d'aller à l'université.
